HOURS PER WEEK: 6

FACULTY NAME:

CONTACT DETAILS:

CREDITS: 4

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

In a world where nations have come too close due to developments of technology, international law shapes national law; further there is more need to have sound knowledge of international legal principles. The aim of the course is to acquaint the students with the fundamental concepts and broad view of Public International Law and its complex nature. It also aims to familiarize the students with the origin and nature of Public International Law. It explores concepts like State, Recognition and Jurisdiction of States in International Law. Special attention is paid to the belief and notion of State Responsibility and topical issues in International Law. For example, the international framework with respect to extradition, asylum and the Law of the Sea. The course is planned in a meticulous manner to assist the students to focus on the “International Legal Framework” in case of disputes between the parties. The course includes the study of general principles of international law including law of peace. Third world concerns in respect of security and development and the role of U.N. and International 114 Agencies in structuring solutions in the context of changing balance of power are also to be appreciated. The course will also delve into India’s position with respect to International Law.

COURSE OUTCOMES:

After completing this course, the students will be able to:

1. To develop a basic understanding the basic concepts of International Law and its complex nature.
2. Critically apply the notions, related to recognition and jurisdiction of State in International Law.
3. Examine the international framework with respect to certain current issues in international law like extradition and asylum and advice on the same.
4. Evaluate and suggest measures in cases of international conflict and analyse the difference in various international laws.
5. Critically examine the operation and application of International Law in practical contexts and suggest remedies.
6. Should be able to practice the various concept of laws by incorporating them in their practice and aiding those who require it.
